Corporations and Dealers Are Required to Pay $5 License for Each Wagon

The Board of Aldermen yesterday passed an ordinance designed to regulate the distribution and sale of ice. It will compel every corporation or dealer in ice to pay a license fee of $5 a year for each wagon he uses. Cellar dealers have to pay the same amount. If the consumer demands it,

Morris Gest and Oliver Morosco Announce the Most Brilliant Program New York Has Seen in Years

Broadway is promised for next season one of the most brilliant theatrical programs in years. The reports just firm, Comstock & Gest, and of Oliver Morosco, both of whom have been abroad recently and who have engaged some of Europe's most talented artists, are filled with the names of widely known stage stars.

Mr. Gest announces that Oscar Asche, who wrote "Mecca," the successor of "Chu Chin Chow," will arrive in New York in September to supervise the final rehearsals of that play. Percy Fletcher, the composer, will come to New York from London to conduct the first performance. The scenery is being painted in London and the costumes are designed by the designers for "Chu Chin Chow."

Mile. Delysia in "Afghar"

Mile. Alys Delysia, who has played the leading rôle in "Afghar" in London for the last two years, will come to New York in that great success, Mr. Gest says, and Lupino Lane, the English comedian, will accompany her. The latest works of Gabriele d'Annunzio were contracted for by Mr. Gest in Paris. "San Sebastian" and "Helen of Sparta" will be produced here.
